Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I had the opportunity of scanning your book the other day when I was in Cleveland visiting my friend Burt Griffin. Griffin told me that he had received a complimentary copy.

I noticed that you had referred in several places to testimony that I had taken and I noticed that some of the references were not entirely complimentary.

In any event I would like to have a copy of your book. If you can't see your way clear to sending me one gratis, I will be happy to send you my check for the appropriate amount.

Note that my address for the summer is Newfane, Vermont.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Wesley J. Liebeler
